Table Talk.

Let's have a little table talk. We have much to say about Tables. It's not all "talk" either, for we have The Goods A large assortment of Dining Tables, Pedestal or five legs. One displayed here is a massively designed, finest quartered oak, round top Pedestal Table, highly polished, with heavy claw feet.

THE FURNITURE MEN

WHAT DEMOCRATS HAVE DONE FOR THE NEGRO.

My colored brother, $55,000.00 has been appropriated and paid to the Normal and Industrial School at Frankfort, a school established for your race. Now, will Mr. Willson tell you of anything his party has done for you or anybody, except for the chosen few, commonly designated as "The Hunters?"

IGNORANCE.

A Republican paper has said the Superintendent of Printing in 1904 in violation of a demand that Mr. Bacon should not be given an order to print more of superintendents and trustees registers, gave said order. In 1904 the office of Superintendent of Printing had not been created and therefore the Superintendent could not have given the above said order.

BE HONEST.

A violation of the command: "Thou Shalt Not Steal," will bring its penalty. Theft is theft, whether the thing stolen is a horse, twenty dollars, twenty votes, a governorship or the presidency. Squirm and apologize as much as you like but facts are stubborn things, and will not be put down. Democrats accuse Republicans of stealing a presidency. Republicans say that Kentucky Democrats stole the governorship.

Defeat is preferable to

"REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY."

If we would have our proud Commonwealth occupy the enviable position before the world that she should occupy, her laws must be enforced without fear or favor, without prejudice or partiality; while the criminal and penal laws of the State should be rigidly enforced, those relating to the proper observance of the Sabbath should be as strictly enforced. When the Lord thundered from Sinai the command: "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy." He was not speaking alone to the generation then living, but his command was to live through all ages and guide throughout all time. For crime, wherever committed, or by whomsoever committed, I have no sympathy. No assassin or aider and abettor of an assassin, need expect immunity from me no matter what may be his station in life, whether high or low, rich or poor, politically great and powerful, or the most obscure citizen in the land, if convicted on such a charge by twelve "good men and true," he must expiate his crime to the full measure of the jury's verdict.

This is the language of Judge Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor of Kentucky. True man as he is, a correct businessman, had he no other conviction, the people of Kentucky would make him their Governor.

THINK, THEN, IF YOU CAN.

We would ask our subscribers to carefully read the speech of Hon. James Andrew Scott, of Frankfort, delivered at Paris on court day. It is a reminder of what the Republican party has done for our people of the South. What have they done? Taken by force from the South millions of dollars worth of property. Stole it is the plain language, and worse, have not made restitution nor never will. This done, because they had men and money, they resorted to arson, delighting in the destruction of homes. This is the party so desperately in love with the Democrats now. The South have had all the Republican domination they are willing to tolerate and their cunning methods, attempting to make a split in the Democratic party, that they may sail into office, wont work. Old soldier, you who would even be friendly with the set who have robbed you of your own, think before you vote.

OLLIE JAMES ENTHUSIASTIC.

Ollie James the big Congressman from the first congressional district, was so enthusiastic and pleased over the tremendous outpouring of people in his district that he began to make predictions of the majorities for the Democratic ticket this fall, and the more he thought of the crowd at Mayfield the larger he put the majority. He and the others in the party believe that Mr. Bryan's trip has accomplished what nothing else could have accomplished in bringing out the Democrats vote this fall. They left enthusiasm in the wake of the train and the Democrats, who are almost the entire male population, have been aroused as they have not been since 1896, when Mr. Bryan swept that section of the State like wildfire. This is but a slight indication of the coming majorities. Pile them up.

MR. HAGER ON TEMPERANCE.

I have never been fanatical or unreasonable but have had my independent views without disparaging any other whose views upon any question might differ from my own. My sympathies have always been with the cause of temperance and I have always been in favor of such reasonable and feasible legislation as might be demanded by the sentiment of my State. I am in hearty accord and sympathy with the best and most feasible temperance thought and heartily endorse any rational movement or law that tends to the moral upbuilding and uplifting of the State.

Could the people of Kentucky who love law and order, ask more?

JUST SO.

Here it is. Out at last. Mr. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor, at Calhoun the other day is reported to have said this: "While he was not a Prohibitionist, since his party had adopted the County Unit Law, if elected he would enforce it." He might have added, "until it can be repealed." So it is, Mr. Willson, you are for temperance just because you have to be. Just as we expected.

HASHED BREATHITT.

At Pikeville a joint discussion was pulled off between Republican candidate for Attorney General James Breathitt, and Hon. South Trimble, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor. The story reads thus: "Trimble created much enthusiasm." Logically construed, he made hash of Breathitt. Trimble is a strong man, thoroughly posted, and these short Republican speakers have no use for him in a joint discussion. Trimble had led Democratic forces during our recent troublesome times, knew his lesson well and told the people what a Republican would do with half a chance. Mr. Trimble advised the people not to trust them and gave acceptable reasons for such advice.

A REDUCTION OF TAX RATE.

After four years' experience at the head of the financial department of the State, I confidently assert that the tax rate of 30c, though not itself excessive, can and ought to be reduced, and if elected Governor I will in my message to the Legislature recommend that it be reduced to 40c, the lowest tax rate ever experienced since the adoption of the present Constitution. Hager.

If Judge Hager is elected Governor the tax rate will be 40c. What if Willson could be elected? Look out, voter, Republican methods come high.

MR. SCOTT'S SPEECH.

Powerful Arraignment of the Republican Party by Hon. James Andrew Scott Delivered at the Court House.

An audience of two hundred citizens of Bourbon county heard Hon. James Andrew Scott, of Frankfort, in a scathing denunciation of Republican misrule in Kentucky, at the court house Monday afternoon. The heavy downpour of rain which set in shortly after noon, the dinner hour, served to keep hundreds of Democrats away.

The speaker was introduced by County Attorney T. E. Moore, Jr. Mr. Scott said he was in bad voice from a recent cold, but soon warmed up. He traced the history of the Republican party from its birth, and showed that its first taste in power under Lincoln was obtained by force and fraud. He pictured the reign of bayonet rule under war Governor Magoffin and how it was revived under Bradley and Taylor.

He showed how the corporate influences under Mark Hanna had lured McKinley in the White House, defeating the greatest exponent of liberty this country ever knew in the person of W. J. Bryan.

He explained the cry of "Let us see the books," which fooled the people, and permitted Bradley to ride into power. He told of how on a quiet Sabbath afternoon when the people of Frankfort had returned from their places of worship, how the alarm of riot had rung in their ears; how the trend of marshalled soldiery and the din and noise of bayonets and steel had awakened the peaceful citizens of a peaceful community to the realization that the capital of the State was surrounded by soldiers and gating guns. How peace and order and constitutional liberty had given way to Republican riot, insurrection and devolution, how the election of 1899 had been secured by thousands of votes from border States, tissue ballots, Deputy United States Marshals, Bradley's soldiery and the overpowering of thousands of Democrats in the mountain counties who were afraid to cast their ballots. He showed how Rome under Caesar, Greece under Alexander, and France under Napoleon had been wrecked by bayonet rule and asked his hearers if the fair name of Kentucky and her two millions of free men wanted a return to such a condition.

He showed how the theft of 1876 was consummated and quoted the famous telegram of Reed to Chandler, containing four words: "Hayes elected; claim everything." He said Gus Willson was an honorable man and an able lawyer, but the forces behind him were the same as piloted Bradley and Taylor.

He declared that the bay Governor was the best the State ever had, and that a magnificent capital was being erected without even a breath of suspicion of graft. He said that if Gus Willson was elected the hordes of mountaineers who swarmed down upon Frankfort in a time of peace, with glittering guns and bayonets would again visit the capital and demand of Willson the pardon of Powers or immediate death by hanging to a sour apple tree.

He declared that as a result of Powers being the martyr of the Republican party he had accumulated a fund of half a million dollars and would demand upon the issuing of his pardon a seat in the United States Senate.

Mr. Scott asked if a party composed of one-half negroes on the one side and armed mountaineers on the other are to be entrusted, then vote for Willson.

Mr. Scott's speech was in major part devoted to the past traditions and history and record of the Republican party both in nation and State, and only briefly referred to the issues of the present campaign excepting as above stated. After the address was closed many of the audience crowded around the speaker and congratulated him. This was Mr. Scott's first speech of the campaign and the first he ever delivered in Bourbon.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Mt. Sterling Citizen is followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Don's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Mt. Sterling women know this. Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. Pamela A. Fletcher, of Queen Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "For years I had kidney complaint, pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys, dreadful aching in my back and I was sometimes so lame across my hips that I could not stoop and there was also difficulty with the kidney secretions. I used different medicines and prescriptions which seemed at the time to relieve me, but I obtained no lasting benefit. I read about Don's Kidney Pills and a relative of mine got a box for me at F. C. Duerson's drug store. I used them as directed and they helped me in every way. My back felt much better and stronger and the annoying and distressing kidney weakness was greatly relieved. My brother, Strother D. Carrington, of Paris, Ky., who had suffered a good many years with kidney trouble, also used Don's Kidney Pills and found the results most beneficial. Don's Kidney Pills are certainly worthy of recommendation."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at F. C. Duerson's drug store and ask what customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Don's—and take no other. 12-32

If you want to see a real Republican just tell him what the Democratic majority will be.

Winchester Successful.

The Burley Sample House of the Burley Tobacco Society goes to Winchester. The live Commercial Club of Winchester did the work resulting in the selection of this enterprising city as the location. Lexington was anxious that her city be honored but Winchester was several better.

Negroes of Kentucky want coeducation but can not get it under a democratic administration.

W. W. TRIMBLE,

Democrats are claiming Mendemore by not less than 400 majority.

We ask our readers to consider thoughtfully the reply of Governor J. C. W. Beckham to W. O.
 Bradley's utterances. It is published elsewhere in this issue.

Republicans of Bourbon county are reported enthusiastic for their ticket and Democrats are equally enthusiastic. Reports go forth that the usual Democratic majority will be given.

WHO IS ON THE RUN?

Bradley in his opening speech said as a part of the first sentence, "my Democratic friends." The ex-Governor may have some Democratic friends but never is he a friend of Democracy. Mark that friends. Little Billy talks of Democrats on the run. Just watch the man on the run when Col. Bennett H. Young comes out after Billy.

BEWARE!

We are informed that the Rural Route Carriers are loaded down with copies of the Louisville Post, which are being liberally distributed along their respective routes. They are being sent out by the Republican Federal Machine, with a view of deceiving that class of citizens to whom they see it to refer as the "unsuspecting farmers." In this, however, they are mistaken, as the result on November 5th will fully demonstrate.

These papers do not tell the farmer that Willson is an attorney for the tobacco trust, but records in the Court of Appeals say he is, he is not the friend of the farmer.

A FALSEHOOD SAILED.

Willson should have some regard for truth. He has declared to the people who have some conscience in him that William Dennings Bryan was paid to make speeches in Kentucky, to be taken down by a statement from National Committeeman Urey Woodson, saying in substance, Willson's charge is false.
 Willson has been making other charges which have proven false.
 He talked about graft in a general way but failed to be specific, thus failing the charge breaks of its own weight. The temperance question is just the same way with him. A saloonist may be an abstainer of strong drink. How do you stand on the open saloon? Tell the people of Louisville, Willson.

GOING SOME.

A Republican journal has said: Willson makes a new speech each day. This statement has a significance in a combination with the saloon interests against the temperance movement, engaged by the Tobacco Trust to defeat the farmers in their organization for better prices on farm productions, attorney for the Whiskey Trust, charge that he voted for the negro, Asbury, in preference to the mountain white man, George Cecil, and vice versa, does keep the distinguished candidate real busy making new speeches, and with all this work he can't fool the people.
 Willson's much dodging reminds us of the predestinarian's story of the educated Theologian. To him his reasoning led to this you can and you can't, you shall and you shan't, you will and you won't and you will be—if you don't.
 Willson had just as well take his medicine without a struggle for the dose is unavoidable.

BABY ACT.

Mr. Willson, candidate for Governor, challenges the Governor and Judge Hager to deliver the same Anti-Saloon speeches in Louisville as they are delivering through the country, not knowing that the Louisville dailies have printed these speeches in full and that the people there, as well as in the state at large, are perfectly acquainted with the views of these distinguished Democratic leaders.
 No denying, Willson, if you are for the abolition of the saloon say so in no uncertain sound.

WILSON MIDDLES HIS POOL.

Mr. Willson, Republican candidate for Governor, challenges Messrs. Beckham and Hager to make the same speeches in Louisville as they are making throughout the State. Why, Mr. Willson, that the opposers of their moral convictions may be driven to you? Mr. Willson, if you are an anti-saloon and Substant-observing man, why don't you say so in just so many words and quit this playing for votes by your uncertain declarations? Of course, you are a temperance man, Mr. Willson, but tell the people, are you for or against the sale of whiskey?
 Be frank; use plain English, that the people may know what you stand for. You declare you are for temperance, and yet you do not seem to have the sense of distinguishing between an open saloon and temperance.

THE TELEPOST

The Telepost is a recent invention by which telegraphic service is facilitated almost a hundred per cent, very much cheapened and yields a greater profit to the projectors. A message of 50 words can be sent to any part of the United States for 25 cents and yield a profit to the investors of 11 cents per message. The following is a comparison of costs between the old and the new services: Average charge for the old companies per 10 words, 31.6c; net cost per message to the older companies, 27.6c; net profit to the older companies, 4.4c; telepost charge per 50 words, 25.0c; net cost to the company, 11.0c; net profit per message to the company, 14.0c.

According to this showing if the old company could become very rich then the new would have a brighter financial sailing. It therefore appears that there is a revolution in telegraphy is at hand and that the person fortunate to get on the ground floor has an assured fortune.

DEMOCRATS PROUD OF THEIR RECORD.

Our Public Schools are in fine shape and improving with each year. The increased per capita for the school fund insures satisfied teachers. We have competent teachers now and under our present system they will improve. We do not know of any State with more competent teachers than there are in Kentucky. The State stands pledged by our candidates for a Great University. Under Democratic management we would have it. Republicans would be a long time providing such an institution. The people are getting better schools with each passing year. The teachers cannot secure a certificate without a good moral character. Hence the lines approved and followed by Democrats are securing the most helpful results, the best schools, longer terms, better pay, satisfied, aggressive teachers. The Democratic nominees are correct men, experienced in state work and will be kept in charge, pushing forward this laudable work.

Democracy's Candidate FOR Governor of Kentucky.

NOVEMBER ELECTION, 1907.

S. W. HAGER, OF BOYD COUNTY.

"I confess a natural ambition to be the Governor of this, the proudest of all the Commonwealths, but that ambition is subservient to the interests of my people, and it is not upon my personal claim, but rather for the Democratic policies and principles I represent, that I ask your support in this canvass.

"I do not come before you with a perfunctory platform, formulated by a few leaders and languidly adopted, without debate, by a meagerly attended convention, but with one that has been made and approved as their own, by the direct, untrammeled votes of thousands of my fellow Democrats for whose consideration it was presented. I feel justified in expecting the support of every Democratic voter, and I trust that many others of my fellow citizens, approving the principles and policies for which the Democratic representatives stand, will see that their duty, to themselves and to the State, also lies in the support of the Democratic ticket in this campaign."

Utterances of Judge Hager at Lexington, opening the Democratic campaign.

GOVERNOR J. C. W. BECKHAM

Will Speak Here Next Monday at 1:00 O'Clock In the Interest of the Democratic Party

Farmers, business men of classes, arrange to hear Kentucky's gifted son that day. Mothers, sisters, wives, your presence will encourage the speaker. Governor Beckham is the first among our political leaders to take a firm stand toward enforcing Sunday laws and to make a fight against the open saloon. Your presence is evidence that you approve his course. See that your fathers, husbands and sons hear this gifted Kentuckian. He will speak at Morehead on Friday, October 18, at 1 p. m.; Grayson Saturday, October 19, at 1 p. m.

HAVE YOU READ?

In a card sent out to the teachers of the state, Mr. Crabbe, Republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, gives his creed. The production is really wonderful in that he has been sufficiently brilliant to declare for himself either the methods of the Democratic administration, what they are bringing to pass or is in course of realizing. While we are glad to know that Mr. Crabbe is theoretically correct in the adoption of Democratic measures, we, like others, would have been pleased to know his mode in bringing them to pass. The modest novice was wise that he did not expose this ignorance. Look at his creed.

Point 1. "The absolute redemption of schools from politics." Are schools in politics? They never have been under Democratic administration and the mere reference is evidence of insincerity, in-ignorance or arrogance. Roosevelt dined with a negro, has never shown regret, and it may be, were it possible for Crabbe to be elected, he would make negro appointees. We will not therefore allow the temptation, it might be more than the weakling could bear.

2. "Better schools and school houses." This improvement is continually going on under Democratic administration, is realistic, and the people will not take chances in a change. They know what Republicans did once. Democrats are doers and Republicans are only promisers. They are good pledgers but mighty poor doers and therefore the people will not trust them.

WILL BE A CANDIDATE.

Last week T. N. Perry filed with County Clerk King his petition as a candidate for Magistrate as an Independent, to oppose the Democratic nominee, Jno. R. Thomas, in the Spencer-Howard's Mill district. We regret that he has so decided.

ATTENTION, TOBACCO MEN!

J. Morgan Chinn, Clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, in a recent speech in Franklin county threw a hot shot into the Republican nominee for Governor, Mr.
 Augustus E. Willson, by calling attention to the fact that in a case decided last week in the Court of Appeals, wherein the American Tobacco Company was a party, that said Willson, who is now posing as the friend of the farmers, appeared as the attorney and defender of their most bitter enemy, the tobacco trust. On the other hand we find the Democratic administration fighting the farmers' battles and at the last session of the Legislature a law was passed (which was approved by the Governor March 21, 1906), authorizing the farmers of Kentucky to pool their crops of wheat, tobacco, etc., in order that they might be able to fight Mr. Willson's friend, the American Tobacco Company and similar trusts.

Voters, will you vote for a man who for a fee would deprive you of the protection given you by the Legislature? It now comes to pass that Willson is counsel for the Farmers, he is not your friend.
 The records of the Court of Appeals bears out this statement.
 Turn him down.

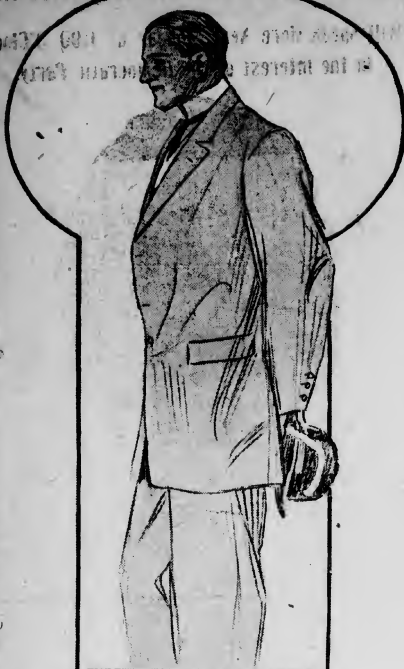

FOR THE ASKING.

Mr. Henry Lees, of Plymouth, Penn., was in the city last week and called attention of some of our business men to the fact that the Mt. Sterling Water, Light & Ice plant had power sufficient to mo-torize an electric railway, that they were anxious to employ all their power, and that in any effort made by our people to construct a road they would do their part in making a subscription for the enterprise. Our people realize the necessity of having other roads and they may also realize that if we get them we must go down in our pockets and put up. The question is how much it would pay and our ability to contribute. The Business Men's Club might turn the young men on this enterprise to obtain the needed road.

STYLE AND ITS ORIGIN.

The average merchant of today will tell you for no better reason that our styles all come from the English and are tempered down or changed to the whims of a few high-priced tailors on Fifth Avenue in New York; but such is not the case, and if such WAS a fact there would be no style—we would all be uniformed, and individuality in one's appearance would be lost. Style is not the creation of any two or three men or set of men. It is the accumulation of months research. Large combined tailors, such as the Stein-Bloch Co. in Rochester and Hamburger Bros. in Baltimore, send representatives to Paris, London and the Continent, some to the New York Horse Show to Sherry's, and others to Newport in the height of the season. A lapel is gathered here, a sleeve there, a collar somewhere else, and so on. All of these parts are talked over, tried out and boiled down, matched to the different cloths and colours until each is considered perfect. The creations of the different concerns are guarded with the greatest possible care that they may not be copied or imitated by others. Thence the newness of their creations, the difference in appearance, which stamps them leaders in style and tailoring of the world to-day. The close attention paid to our business gives us knowledge of these facts, and that is our reason for advertising these makes and recommending them as the best to be had to our friends and patrons.

We want you to know more clothes facts, which means knowing our clothes, but it can never be unless you visit our store, so do it while the stocks are new and complete.

"You and Your Shoes."

Did it ever enter your mind that some stores were in a better position to sell you shoes cheaper than others, and sell better shoes at the same time? Do you ever look around when you go to buy shoes, or just follow a certain guide or a single thought? We have often wondered about you. The Johnson & Murphy (J. & M.) Shoe is considered by other good stores to be the best in the U. S., to be the best shoes made worth $5 or $6. We sell them and show a complete line of plain and noble styles in all the up-to-date leathers of the times. The W. L. Douglas and Eclipse by this store for 20 years to the same trade—people living in the same county and town that you are and you still buy other brands that are not as good, just because you have never taken the time to spend your money to the best advantage. Now look at our shoes. We have good ideas in our shoes that will be an advantage to you.

Shoes made by the Holland Shoe Co. give splendid satisfaction and guaranteed.

Men's Suits

In more different styles for you to select from than any tailor's fashion plate shows, and the beauty about buying our high-class ready-to-put-on garments lies in the fact that you may try on every style, see the one that's most becoming both in cloth and cut. Browns and Greys are beyond a question the season's favored colours, while the staple Blacks and Blues are shown in an endless range in fashionable styles. We refer you to the following styles, all of which we show:

The Lipton 3-button double-breasted sack; the Rycoft 3-button double-breasted, round cornered sack; the Druid 3-button single-breasted sharply sack; the Sagamore 3-button single-breasted long gorge sack; the Newport 3-button single-breasted long gorge, with shantung pockets; the Windsor 3-button single-breasted conservative sack; the Saxon 3-button single-breasted conservative sack; the English 3-button single-breasted straight front sack.

It is certainly worth the man's time who cares about his clothes to visit our store. Here you will see the garments you have admired on other men and you will find that the clothes help. Every garment is built like a watch and is light with the spirit of progress. Look to-day. Suits from $7.50 to $20.

Men's Overcoats.

The range of styles in Men's Overcoats this season is broad that every man may use his own judgment and yet have a stylish garment. We are showing the celebrated Stein-Bloch and Hamburger makes in top coats, Chesterfields, Surtouts, Paudocks, Rain Coats, Box Backs and Shapely Backs in Light and Heavy weights, made with heavy wool serge or silk lining, some trimmed with astric collar and cuffs, silk velvet collars and cuffs, some with contrasting cloth collars and others with collars of the same goods. Our stock is of such magnitude and our prices are so low that no man need be disappointed who visits our store, as this is truly the house of the overcoat.

Men's Hats.

Our Hats are bought with two separate ideas in view, to reach two different tastes, namely: The young and the old they say you can't put an old head on young shoulders, so it is with hats. Our line is made up of Stetson and Knox styles and specialties. Every whim of fashion that is correct is shown. The colours are the ones most worn. A look will convince without argument. Come to-day.

Suits and Overcoats

For the boy, not a few, not just anything, but on the balcony in our house will be found a complete line of boys' and children's suits, overcoats, hats, caps and other apparel that borders on the men's styles, which to an extent regulates the young lad's clothes.

Lrey Woodson Refutes the Charge Made By Mr. Willson.

In answer to the charge made by Mr. A. E. Willson that Mr. Bryan received $500 a day for speaking in Kentucky, Lrey Woodson, Democratic National Committeeman from Kentucky and close personal friend of Mr. Bryan, made the following statement: "I am amazed that Mr. Willson would give utterance to such a lie. There is absolutely no truth in it as to this campaign or any other campaign. It is a revival of the same old lie that was told during 1896 campaign. Mr. Bryan has never received a cent for any political speech that he has ever made in Kentucky. Not only has he received no pay, but he has been a contributor to the campaign fund."

Suicided.

On Friday the 11th of October, Mr. Richard Walters, of Sharpshurg who was attending the races in Lexington drank a half pint of carbolic acid in his room at the Reed Hotel and died that evening. Mr. Walters was about 28 years old. Mr. Walters' wife suicided in Sharpshurg about three months ago by taking the same drug. It is probable he became despondent on account of the death of his wife and when the opportunity presented itself he committed the act ending his life.

CHAIRMAN HINES GOES AFTER WILLSON

Declares Statement That Bryan Was Paid Money to Come to Kentucky as "Maliciously False" and Willson Knew It.

Nebraska Even Paid His Own Expenses

Henry B. Hines, chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, this morning went after A. E. Willson, the Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, when he declared that his statement that W. J. Bryan was paid to come to Kentucky and speak for the state ticket was "maliciously false."

Chairman Hines says Kentucky Democrats will resent Mr. Willson's statement at the polls.

His statement is as follows:

"Louisville, Ky., Oct. 10, 1907.

—Augustus E. Willson's statement at Owensboro that William J. Bryan was paid money by the Kentucky Democrats to come to Kentucky to speak in behalf of the Democratic State ticket was not only untrue and without the slightest semblance of truth, but was maliciously false and unbecoming for one who seeks to be Governor of Kentucky, to say about one of the Nation's most distinguished and foremost men, Mr. Willson knew his statement was false for he could have had no excuse, reason or fact to support his statement, and as chairman of the Democratic State Campaign, I made the arrangements for Mr. Bryan to come to Kentucky. He was not paid a cent for his speeches and even paid his expenses out of his own pocket. Mr. Willson's charge will be resented by Kentucky Democrats at the polls in November.

Mt. Sterling Collegiate Institute

Is now well into the work of the second session, and perhaps not all our people know what is really being done at this school.

The enrollment is more than twenty-five per cent beyond the enrollment at the same time last session, and new pupils are matriculating each week. Starting with two teachers on September 11, 1906, the faculty now numbers five.

Besides the regular classes in the four departments—Primary, Intermediate, Preparatory and Collegiate—there are a Kindergarten School, Military Drills and Tactics, Freshman Drawing, Calligraphy and Physical Culture, and Music—both instrumental and vocal. The school is a veritable workshop and good results will certainly be attained. Persons having children to educate should consider the advantages offered in this institution before placing them elsewhere.

The daily session opens at 8:30 and closes at 3:00 p. m. The Literary Societies have begun their work with renewed interest and energy, and a fine spirit is already manifested. A new society called the Delphian Club will soon be organized and will give its first public entertainment about Thanksgiving Day. The people of Mt. Sterling should visit this growing school and see and know of its doings.

Miss Emma L. Sleet, Soloist and Teacher of Piano and Voice, is the teacher of music. She was a pupil of Prof. W. S. Sterling, Signor Romeo Garmo and Dr. Elsenheimer, of the College of Music at Cincinnati, from which institution she has the famous Garmo technique, and is prepared with the best methods for excellence in both the old and modern classics. She has a certificate with Distinction in Voice, from Prof. Sterling. She has appeared in public recitals, entertainments, etc., given by the College of Music. That her instrumental pupils may have a greater intelligence in the Art, she meets them three hours a week, free of cost, in a general class for special and detail work. Her courses of study are planned after those in the College of Music at Cincinnati. Miss Sleet is fully competent and well equipped to train the Voice, and teach both chorus and sight-singing. A special chorus class and a class in sight-singing can be arranged for any persons who wish to avail themselves of her services.

She will be pleased to meet any persons wanting lessons on piano, voice trained, chorus work or sight-singing.

Public Sale.

On Tuesday, October 22, 1907, at 2 o'clock, on the premises, I will sell to the highest and best bidder the place known as the Cook Hainline place, situated at Levee, six miles south of Mt. Sterling, Ky., on the line of the proposed new railroad from Mt. Sterling to Clay City. The tract contains about 3 acres and on it is a Dwelling, Stable, Blacksmith-shop and a good store building, making it a very desirable stand for blacksmithing and merchandising. The place is almost midway between Mt. Sterling and Clay City and on the pike.

The sale will be made for cash in hand when the deed is executed and delivered and possession given.

Arrested and Fined.

Bob Carter was arrested on Saturday night on a warrant sworn out by P. H. Davis. The charge was crop shooting. The offense referred to occurred at Davis' saloon on July 4, 1906, when three men were wounded in a fight. Carter was tried before Judge Kemper on Monday. He confessed guilt and was fined $50. An appeal was taken. Carter was again arrested for disorderly conduct early in September. The case was called on Tuesday afternoon before Judge Kemper. A petition was filed asking that Judge Kemper vacate the bench. He granted the petition and remanded the case to Esq. C. G. Thompson's court, and Carter was sent to jail, as no bail could be granted by Judge Kemper.
